About

o o o o

Art is for everyone.

The Arts & Culture Accessibility Cooperative (ACAC) strives to empower our community to become more accessible to people with disabilities as visitors, patrons, artists, employees, and volunteers. We believe that Saint Louis's arts and culture community is for everyone – and that everyone deserves access to this vibrant cultural landscape.

About ACAC

The Forums

Bi-monthly Morning Meetup forums bring together cultural practitioners, people with disabilities, and disability advocates to share experiences and learn from each other to create a more inclusive community. Each ACAC forum requires:

- ASL interpretation
- Audio Description
- Real-time captioning
- A panel of experts and contributors
- An accessible space for 50-60 individuals and light refreshments (when in-person)

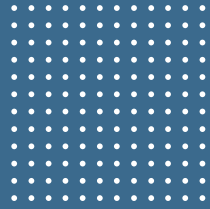

Forums are recorded and distributed digitally as a free resource anyone can access.

2023 Schedule

- March
- May
- July
- September
- November
- January 2024
(IDEA Awards)

Highlights

Participants

Thus far, representatives from over 100 local institutions have participated, including some of our regions most recognized and celebrated arts, culture, as well as sports organizations including:

- St. Louis Art Museum
- The Muny
- St. Louis Blues

IDEA Awards

These forums culminate in the IDEA Awards which recognize institutions and individuals who made outstanding contributions to the inclusion, diversity, equity, and accessibility of the Greater St. Louis cultural landscape. Awardees receive bespoke awards designed and created by Custom MADE St. Louis.
